

CUSTODY AND ACCESS

Some families have special situations which require documentation to be lodged at the school. If there are restrictions on who should collect your child from school it is essential that the Principal and Class Teacher are informed. Should the situation change during the year please notify the School in writing.